WHAT'S IT LIKE TO BE MARRIED TO THE BOSS?

The Lyndon Area Business Association currently has approximately 175 members. What you may not know is several of our members are husband & wife teams that are great business leaders in the community. Here are just a few of their stories.

Robert & Angela Wiggins
State Farm Insurance Agency
8109 LaGrange Road 425-4101

Angela & Robert Wiggins are with State Farm Insurance Company. They are fantastic representatives of LABA as well as many other organizations. "The key for us is to make time for quality time away from work" stated Robert & Angela. Both agree that working toward a common goal, being exposed to multiple sides of your spouse, supporting the other during tough times is only a few of the positive aspects of working with your spouse. "Dividing specific areas of responsibilities also helps to define roles and therefore eliminate unnecessary conflict", said Angela.

Mike & Michele Allen opened Bee Hive Homes of Lyndon, an assisted living community for seniors in June 2007. Michele is an RN and Mike is a builder & general contractor. "One important factor is the clear division of responsibilities. We are on call 24/7 for our residents & and it is nice that we share this responsibility & support each other" said Michele & Mike. They both agree for any husband & wife business venture, a strong marriage is definitely a pre-requisite. Michele said they balance each other. "Mike is very calm & laid back, while I am quite the worrier". This is their first joint venture as husband & wife .

Terri & Mark Guethensberger agree that the best part of their partnership is knowing my business partner has the exact same goals. Trust is never an issue. "Mark is a numbers/detail-oriented person, I am more of a people person", per Terri. They were unsure how the daily "togetherness" would be, but it ended up great. The only downside to working together is work follows you everywhere! "Whether there is a problem at Bruster's or at home, we understand that we have to divide & conquer" stated Mark & Terri.
