Usborne Books Voted Favorite Wreath at Light up Lyndon!

Member Spotlight—Usborne Books, Jenny Benner

Jenny Benner, LABA Member is a consultant for Usborne Books. She went to her first Usborne show at her sister-in-law's house 3 years ago and loved the books. "They were running a special that if you signed up to be a consultant there is no obligation, but you would get many books at a low price". She was hooked!

Jenny states that, "once I received the books I realized how much my daughter liked them and thought that it would be fun to actually sell them". She participated in a training session and discovered that being a consultant could be fun and the company offered great incentives as well.

Having an opportunity that allows you to get free and discounted books for your family is definitely a winner. Time passed since Jenny's initial involvement and with the birth of her son she had to put Usborne books on the backburner.

This past year Jenny started her consultant business with Usborne up again while balancing a full-time teaching position at a local daycare/preschool. "My students love it when I bring in Usborne books. They are so diverse, some are picture books, some activity books, some touch and feel."

If you would like more information on Usborne Books, Jenny would be happy to help you. Jenny adds that, "I can't express how great it is to work for Usborne and for the experience I am able to give my children with these books!"

RECYCLING BIN

The recycling bin located at the Lyndon Fire Station, 8414 Westport Road was removed recently by Metro Solid Waste. This was due in part to complaints about noise associated with removing materials from the bin. Glen Stuckel, Metro Councilman District 17 has been working with the Director of Metro Solid Waste for an alternate site.

If you have materials you want to recycle in the interim, please use the recycling centers at 9300 Whipps Mill Road & 595 Hubbards Lane.
